Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind. "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 50 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. B. McDonald's drug store.

An inebriated stage driver Tuesday night was responsible for a badly demolished stage coach a short distance this side of Hamilton's Fort, and the remainder of the trip to Bellevue had to be made with a three and a quarter wagon. A lady passenger was killed in St. George the same afternoon, but fortunately refused to travel with a drunken driver. There was one male passenger on and when the stage left town the horses were going at breakneck speed.

LOCAL ITEMS.

They had some heavy floods about 25 miles and Washington last week.

Several water deliveries since pure ice has been found.

It seems never lark in water kept by Harry Hunter's lot. Try it.

When you want really stylish gents' goods go to Page & Bracken, the gentleman's outfitting store.

Mr. Mora Morris of St. George was among the pleasure seekers on the mountain for the Twenty-fourth.

John Nelson, of Washington, after spending a week with his best girl in Cedar, took his departure last Wednesday.

El. Station of Enterprise is spending a few days in Cedar. He reports everything looking prosperous at the new town.

The upper floor of the Marie store building is being divided into office rooms and will be rented to local professional men.

Some of the owners of threshing machines are preparing for the initial run. Considerable barley is either in the stack or shock.

A change goes into effect today in the local express service. Henceforth until further notice the expressage will be handled by Page & Bracken.

Mrs. Will Dotson of Beaver presented her husband with a son Wednesday. Dr. Middleton gave medical assistance and all concerned are doing nicely.

Dr. Middleton reports the birth of a fine girl to Mr. and Mrs. Elding of St. George, the lady having been under the Doctor's treatment for some weeks past.

A Mr. Lewis of Kanab arrived here Tuesday to receive treatment from Dr. Middleton. His ailment is myocarditis, or inflammation of the muscles of the heart.

Dr. Middleton's office No. 140 S. West Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, and get a free sample copy of the Evening Telegram, the most popular daily in the intermountain states.

Sherriff Froyd started over the mountain yesterday in quest of Nathaniel Pryor, the lad who is wanted for holding up two young men at the muzzle of a Winchester rifle and is said to have taken a shot at one of them.

Highman Lamb, an old resident of Tooeville, but who has spent the past two years in Wyoming in the lumber business, was in town this morning. Mr. Lamb is the father of William Lamb, one of our local stage contractors.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to any Medicine Dealer and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They cure biliousness, indigestion and constipation.

For sale by All Druggists.

John Barry makes the unqualified assertion that he has the best looking girl by her age in the country. She was born this morning. That is a peer broad assertion, Evelyn, but we will try to look over it, under the circumstances.

Working Night And day. The busiest and mightiest little thing that was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, bring back mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. On the per box. Sold by J. B. McDonald.

The weather has been quite warm (thawed) and despite the prophecies made in the spring the summer is turning out uncommonly dry. Irrigation streams have held up well during the part of the season, but right now they are pretty low and crops are beginning to suffer for the want of water.

A party of Pennsylvania tourists, consisting of two gentlemen and a lady, were in Cedar this week and took a look at the Iron fields. The personnel of the party was not ascertained.

By this time we presume the telephone line is completed to Summit and two or three weeks more will see its completion to Cedar City. It is expected that the local office will be over the Marie Store in the old Furniture block.

200,000 lbm of brick for the Normal burning in good shape and it was only a matter of a few days work laying on the new building was commenced. In the mean time the makers are going right on with the work and by the time they are another kiln of brick will be ready.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SUMMIT.

July 29, 1903.

Mr. George E. Lane of Milford was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Dalley have gone to Milford on a visit.

The telephone men are with us. Work seems to be going on nicely and within a day or two we will be able to say "hello" over the line.

Considering the number away from home on the Twenty-fourth, our celebration was quite a success. The occasion was quietly observed by holding a meeting in the morning, a children's dance in the afternoon and a sociable at night.

HARMONY.

July 29, 1903.

Charlie Knell of Pinto is in town running the binder for Francis Prince.

Mr. Bench has been in town the past few days in the interests of the Equitable Life Insurance Co.

Gottlieb Schmutz has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism, which has compelled him to quit work.

Several teams passed through town Monday with lumber for the coal mine. They will haul their lumber from the Cedar mountain.

Lorenza Palmer came very near being bitten by a rattle snake Wednesday. He was standing by a brush while regulating the water, when one struck at him, but his overalls being loose prevented its fangs from reaching the flesh.

LEEDS, UTAH

July 29, 1903.

Miss Alice Stirling started to State line last Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkinson has been quite sick with the flu, and feels but is some better now.

Will Burns and family have moved in from the Dixie mine and were here for the Twenty-fourth.

The Twenty-fourth passed off quite pleasantly. We had as visitors some of the Virgin City people.

By McMullin started to Milford Monday to meet his wife, who has been in Salt Lake with her daughter, Mrs. Lew Harris, for some time.

L. S. McMullin, who is working on the Kanarra school house, came home Sunday for a short visit, returning to his work by last night's stage.

Frank Anderson and Richard Forsyth were here for the Twenty-fourth, the latter paying most of his attentions to Miss Mame Olsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bastian of St. George came over today on a short visit to relatives. They expect to take a trip on the mountains in the interests of Mrs. Bastian's health.

PAROWAN.

July 29, 1903.

Fairly good crops of sugar have been secured.

We are now able to "hello" to the uttermost ends of the earth, the telephone has been placed in the equitable store.

We are promised a most welcome musical entertainment the latter part of this week, when the hum of the threshing machine will be heard, some wheat has already been cut.

Special Correspondence.

The general committee of the coming fair seem to be very buoyant over the prospects for an excellent showing and the general success of their labors. There is one department, however, in relation to which they cannot satisfy themselves, and that is the mineral exhibit. A premium that would justify the conveying of a good collection of such specimens from other towns or localities, should be double value. At present the funds or prospects for funds would not warrant the offering of a sufficient award, yet the committee feel positive that some plan could be worked up by the united effort of the people, whereby their best hopes could be realized; but it is for the people and not by the people. So if we can do anything to make conditions more propitious we should begin to consider seriously before it is too late, and then pass our unkind judgement upon the committee for what they can do without assistance in the right time.

Twenty-fourth in the Canyon.

The celebration of the Twenty-fourth in the canyon commenced a little prematurely, and most of the fun (?) from all accounts occurred on the evening of the 23rd. A gang of boys, some of them of an age to still derive benefit from the maternal slipper properly applied, loaded up with beer, wine, and booze and proceeded to "show each other a good time." A number of shots were fired, several parties were severely bruised with the stick of a gun or the butt of a revolver, a knife or two was brought into requisition and before the noise was over the sulphur fumes had grown quite dense. Fortunately, the fighting was all among themselves, and appeared to have pretty well worked itself out during the night as nothing occurred on the 24th to mar the peace of the celebration.

There was a very fair attendance at the celebration. Many of the representative people being there. The orchestra and a part of the band was on the ground, and the music seemed sweet as it floated out among the pines and hills. There was some delay in commencing the meeting, on account of the master of ceremonies, chaplain, most of the committee and many of those on the program either being absent or extremely tardy.

Difficulty was found in securing a master of ceremonies. The plan was tendered to a number and declined, but was finally accepted by Thomas D. Roche. The program as carried out, omitting the failures, was as follows:

Music by the brass band.
Prayer by Chaplain Uriah T. Jones.
Singing by choir and congregation.
Address of Welcome, Jas. H. Hunter.
Extemporaneous remarks on "Why we Celebrate the Twenty-fourth," Joseph T. Wilkinson.
Quintette by Miss Ada Wood and Co.
Music by the brass band.
By Henry W. Lunt made interesting remarks.

Recitation, Miss Hattie Mackelprang.
A hymn was rendered by the choir and audience and prayer was offered by the chaplain.

The assembly then disbanded and partook of lunch, returning for the children's dance and sports during the afternoon. Candy was distributed among the children.

The sports included lifting the rings, for which a bribe was offered as a prize and was won by John Effe. There were races for children of all ages, married women, and single girls. Frank Armstrong won the fifty yard dash, free to all.

In the evening there was a dance on the pavilion for adults, which kept up until 2 a. m. Saturday morning.

The rain on the morning of the 23rd and the threatening aspect of the weather on the 24th prevented a great many from attending, but those who got out and enjoyed the pure mountain breezes, drank in the beautiful scenery and pure spring water, felt well paid for going.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistence and successful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Goldblatt of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 13 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Blitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. July 29th. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. B. McDonald druggist.

Lamb is Exonerated.

The following communication received a few days since by Sheriff Froyd will explain itself. As it vindicates the honor and good name of one of our citizens, we gladly make room for it:

Kanab, July 21, 1903.
To Alfred Froyd, Sheriff, and the good people of Iron County, Utah:

After a thorough examination against William Lamb it was found that there wasn't any element of wrong doing in the charge brought against him for grand larceny. In fact the evidence showed that he had advised against the committing of the crime as was charged with.

JAMES SWARTZ, BERN. HAMILIS, Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, H. S. CUTLER, Atty. for William Lamb.

Walker Bound Over.

Charles Walker was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Abbotson Tuesday on the charge of slander, and dismissed on this count on account of the insufficiency of the evidence. A new charge was immediately filed against the defendant was re-arrested. Wednesday he was given another hearing and bound over to the District Court under $200 bonds, which he furnished.

This is a most remarkable case of moral depravity. The defendant last May stated to numbers of people that he had been criminally intimate with a certain young lady of St. George, who had given birth to a child and that he had to be there on a certain date to marry her. The story was generally believed here at the time, but it has now developed that it was all a lie, and the girl's father learning of the stories has instituted proceedings against him for slander. The young lady is highly respected in her own town.

Joseph S. Hunter is preparing to make shipment of a trainload of sheep, which will be loaded at Lund Aug. 7, for the eastern markets. Among others he will be accompanied by C. D. Burkholder, who will avail himself of this opportunity of visiting his old home-stand at Fulton, Kansas, about 12 miles from Ft. Scott, the county seat. Mr. Burkholder still has valuable property there which is bringing him no returns, and which he will try to convert into cash.
